

Radiant Rainbows

The image of the rainbow has been used worldwide to symbolise hope, that after the storm (COVID-19), will come our rainbow. By putting pictures of rainbows in our windows, we are sending happy, positive messages to our local community and young families have also been using them as an 'eye spy' to encourage young children to enjoy their daily exercise time.

